

Did you know that homelessness doesn't always look like homelessness?

Housing instability can look like...

Living in a space without regular utilities

Sharing a house with others

Living with other people other than parents and guardians

Living in a campground

We can help! Talk to our school's liaison today to know more about your rights.